Jamie,

I see your point....how is this?

No violations of the International Convention for the Prevention of Pollution from Ships Annex V (MARPOL V) or other garbage-related incidents were detected or reported between 2013 and 2016.

It currently says "No enforcement events for violations of the International Convention for the Prevention of Pollution from Ships Annex V (MARPOL V) or other garbage-related incidents were reported between 2013 and 2016."

When I read that, it almost sounds like "we didn't enforce anything" instead of "there were no violations". Is there a way we could wordsmith this?

By the way, I don't even know if we could make this change at this late hour, but it jumped out at me.
